

INNOVATIVE TREATMENT FOR HEMIPLEGIA

Constraint-Induced
Movement Therapy

Constraint-Induced Movement Therapy is a family of treatments that teach the brain to “rewire” itself and increase use of the affected extremity. CI Therapy is effective in children and adults who have limited use of one side of their body due to diagnoses such as:

- Cerebral Palsy
- Stroke
- Head Injury
- Hemispherectomy
- Brachial Plexus Injury

POWERHOUSE THERAPY

404.933.9869

Hope Through Movement

www.constrainttherapy.com | info@constrainttherapy.com

Now offering Speech Therapy Intensives in addition to our upper and lower extremity CIMT programs.

Activities are designed to achieve your specific goals such as:

- Increase use of arm, hand and fingers
- Daily living skills such as dressing, feeding, school activities etc.
- Gate/Balance
- Strength
- Coordination
- Self-confidence

Schedule throughout the year or attend one of our upper and/or lower extremity summer programs!

Scan to check out our website!

POWERHOUSE  THERAPY

404.933.9869

Hope Through Movement

www.constrainttherapy.com | info@constrainttherapy.com